

The European Partnership for Electronic Records Research (EPERR), National Preservation Office and the Humanities Advanced Technology and Information Institute (HATII) at the University of Glasgow are pleased to announce an:
Open Seminar Current Projects in Digital Preservation and Electronic Records
12 March 2001, The British Library Boardroom, The British Library, London

13:30 - 13:40, Welcome and Introduction, Dr Seamus Ross, Director HATII, University of Glasgow

13:40 - 14:10 (Keynote), InterPARES, Professor Luciana Duranti, University of British Columbia

14:15 - 14:35, The Moreq Project: at the intersection of Theory and Practice, Marc Fresko, Principal, The Marc Fresko Consultancy

14:40 - 15:00, Managing Financial Records as a Strategic Resource, Kimberly Barata, Research Manager, International Records Management Trust, Rights and Records Institute

15:00 - 15:20 TEA

15:25 - 15:45, Electronic Records Management Project (ERM), Professor Michael Moss, University of Glasgow

15:50 - 16:10, CEDARS Progress, Ellis Weinberger, Project Officer, CEDARS-Cambridge University Library

16:15 - 16:35 The National Preservation Office: Expediting Strategic Action, Vanessa Marshall, Director, National Preservation Office

16:40 - 17:00 Closing Discussion-Future Collaboration and Directions.

Note places are limited, if you intend to attend please email vanessa.marshall@bl.uk giving your name and affiliation.

Telephone: ++44-(0)20-7412 7725

If you have questions or want further information please email Seamus Ross.

Telephone: ++44-(0)141-330 3635 (direct)

Institute Secretary: ++44-(0)141-330 5512 (Mrs Ann Law)

Fax: ++44-(0)141-330 3788

email: S.Ross@hatii.arts.gla.ac.uk